Indian Depredations at Knight's Inlet.

All accounts that have reached here from time to time confirm the opinion that the Indians from the U-kluh-taw Rapids to Bella Bella are the greatest thieves, robbers, and cut-throats on the coast of British Columbia. The Indian population nearly everywhere around our coast have to be watched; but the tribes that speak the Fort Rupert language, or those in alliance with them, are undoubtedly the least to be trusted of them all. Some of the bloodiest tragedies that have occurred of late years on our coast has been in the tract of country which these tribes inhabit. We need only mention the Bute Inlet butchery to recall to our readers the bloodthirsty character of these tribes, both on the coast and near by in the interior. The murder of Knight and his cousin, whilst lying in his bunk reading on board his sloop, by the Wy-ah-kee-nahs, is another instance of their blood-thirstiness. The Government punished the Bute Inlet murderers; but the Wy-ah-kee-nahs who murdered Knight and his cousin still live undisturbed to plot murder against other white men who traverse the coast. No later than this summer they wanted the Mam-la-Kullahs to join with them and murder Stevens and crew of the Nanaimo Packet. These tribes have forgotten the chastisements administered by Commander Robson, in the gunboat Forward, at Valdez Island; but they remember well the act of the Captain of the Clio at Fort Rupert. The recollection of the latter seems to be the only protection that the prospector has in the region of country of which we write. But failure on the part of Government to bring the murderers of Knight to justice, has emboldened all the Fort Rupert tribes to take the law into their own hands—and create such insecurity for life and property—such terrorism that the boldest and hardiest prospectors on our coast are afraid, no matter how well armed, to enter their country, unless with a force strong enough to overawe them. If the force be small, and they escape with their lives, it is at the expense of annoyance and robbery. The case of the men employed by the Musgrave Copper Company is an instance in point. These men purchased the right to work the copper vein from the Sah-wot-tee tribe, at the head of Knight's Inlet, and paid for it in blankets. But, nothwithstanding that fact, they would not allow the men to work at any place in the copper-vein, except such as they selected. Even then, seven of these Red robbers, only allowed the men to work whilst one stood over them with loaded gun. The best specimens of the ore they took; the inferior were left to the prospectors. When they had worked a little while, their tools were taken, and they were ordered to leave. But that was not all: Not content with stopping the work, the Sah-wot-tees took away their canoe; compelled them to enter two canoes; and at last, after reaching the Catholic Mission, on Harbledown Island, they robbed the prospectors of nearly all the ore taken from the vein, besides other things. Now we have given enough facts to show the character of the piratical tribes who live witnin two hundred miles of Victoria, and control one of the best mineral sections in the Colony. The very fact of the discovery of a clearly defined copper-vein, shows the value of the Sah-wot-tee country—for although indications of copper ore are found everywhere, a clearly defined vein is a rarity. The rights of the Indians ought to be respected; but the wrongs committed by the Indians ought to be promptly punished. No delay should occur, therefore, in bringing the Sah-wot-tees to justice. A gunboat ought to be dispatched at once to Knight's Inlet, and every Sah-wot-tee who was concerned in the robbery of the Musgrave Copper Company ought to be arrested and punished. If a proper example be made of them, not only that Company, but others may explore and prospect that country undisturbed. We expect the Government to engage in no half measures to bring these marauders to speedy justice.

Political.

Mr. Hugh Nelson, of the firm of Moody, Dietz & Nelson, has published his address in the Guardian to the electors of New Westminster District. The address seems to have the ring of sterling metal in it. Mr. Nelson squarely tells the electors that he has always been in favor of Confederation; and that is so. He is in favor of the railway, no matter where it may end on the Pacific side; but he ventures the opinion that it will come down Fraser river. He boldly plants himself in favor of Responsible Government, and a better School system. Retrenchment he defers, till the question of Confederation is determined,—and if Confederation should not carry, he thinks retrenchment imperative. He favors the construction of roads everywhere through the district to enable farmers to get to market easily; and also a wagon road from New Westminster to Yale; and last but not least, is in favor of improving the navigation of Fraser River. Some misunderstanding has occurred in the District among the electors, respecting the requisition to Mr. Armstrong. It appears that it was expected that there would be two members for that District; and consequently a requisition was signed in favor of Messrs. Armstrong and Nelson. It is alleged by some that the majority signed simply because Mr. Nelson's name was upon it. On the other hand the published requisition to Mr. Armstrong makes no mention of Mr. Nelson. There seems to be but little difference in the opinions of the two Candidates, except that Mr. Armstrong favors a protective tariff for farmers and Mr. Nelson is silent on that matter. Their views, however, are so near alike, that the election will partake more of a contest between men rather than principles; and the result will mainly depend on the personal popularity of each and the support of their respective friends. We do not clearly understand what Mr. Armstrong means in his address when he says that he favors the imposition of a special tariff till the Railway is completed, and that the proceeds should go to the support of the Local Government. There can be no doubt whatever that quite a heavy blow will be dealt to the farming interest on the Lower Fraser and on Vancouver Island unless some provision be made in the terms to protect their industry. But instead of a tariff the imposition of a license for the sale of foreign produce, would answer every purpose; and thus leave the Dominion free to impose any tariff it might think proper. Such a provision could work no injury to the Dominion Government nor to any branch of local industry; whilst it would be a material benefit to our farmers. With respect to Responsible Government, we think Mr. Armstrong is very near right; for unless we can have a larger representation than fifteen members, Responsible Government will be a failure. It appears that he does not say that he will support a larger representation than what exists at present; but it would be unfair to presume that he would oppose extension of representation, inasmuch as he has pronounced in favor of Responsible Government with a larger representation. One of the measures that ought to be a test question at the polls, with all candidates, is the increase of the Representation to twenty-four members at least. Another measure which is equally necessary, in order to make that successful, is a provision for the payment of members. These two measures being granted, the people cannot fail to enjoy Responsible Government. We have no doubt, however, but there will be found men stupid enough, in this country, to oppose both the increase of representation and paid members. Our confidence in the electors in town and country is, nevertheless, so great that we believe the stupid party at the next election will be in a large minority.

The Daily Standard.

Monday, August 22, 1870.

THE MUSGRAVE COPPER LEAD.—Messrs. Malloney, Mulloy, Rankin and McGrath, arrived on Friday night from the Musgrave Copper Lead, which is reported as being five feet thick. The ore assays 65 and 70 per cent. The party brought about 50 pounds of it down with them. The lead lies about five miles back of Sah-wot-tee river, on Jacques creek, at the head of Knight's canal. The party left here last March, and while they were there at work on the 8th and 9th of August, the Indians came upon the ground and ordered them to desist, telling them that they had enough ore. The savages were all armed with muskets, revolvers, knives &c., and lighted signal fires on the mountains. The prospectors were allowed to bring about 400 pounds of ore to the Mission, when the Indians seized 350 pounds of it, saying that 50 pounds was enough for the "King George men." They demanded and were paid in blankets and money $50, as compensation for the ore taken. The Indians backed out at the Mission, taking the 350 pounds of ore with them. The country, it is said, abounds in copper and bituminous coal. The country is very mountainous. Mr. McGrath has located another claim upon the same lead.

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday morning at Esquimalt the Chaplain and one of the Engineers of H. M. S. Scylla left the ship in a small canoe to go on shore and have a days' shooting. When they arrived at the H. B. Co's wharf the Chaplain attempted to get out of the canoe first, but not being accustomed to such frail barks he upset it, precipitating himself and the Engineer into the salt Chuck along with the guns and ammunition which were in the canoe. The Chaplain was a good swimmer and managed to get on shore all right, but only for two Indians being close at hand the Engineer would have been drowned as he was unable to swim. The Indians picked him up and took him on shore. They afterwards dived and found the guns. In a conversation between the parties after they found themselves safe on terra firma which was overheard by our informant it seemed that this is the second time that they had met with the same fate in a canoe, and they have come to the conclusion that it is much safer to be in a boat. The parties returned to the ship very much disappointed at not being able to proceed on their shooting excursion in wet clothes; for at first after they got out of the water they had determined not to allow a a little water to dampen their ardor but to proceed on their way as if nothing had happened.

MOST INTERESTING LECTURE.—Very Rev. F. X. Weninger, D. D., will deliver, this evening, a lecture on the world-wide spoken-of topic of Papal Infallibility. As he is the author of that book which was written on this subject, and which had by far the largest circulation in America, France, England, and Germany, and, as the author was honored for it by two Apostolical briefs of the Pope, Protestants, as well as Cathalics, who wish to enter into a thorough knowledge concerning the bearing of this famous prerogative claimed by the Head of the Catholic Church, should avail themselves to hear the lecture Monday evening, 22d August, at 7½. The lecture is free. *

T. N. HIBBEN & Co. having for a period of years appropriated a certain class of books for a Circulating Library, more for accommodation than profit, have by a fair experiment tested that in consequence of the destroyed and missing numbers issued, the result to them has been a positive loss. With thanks, they respectfully recommend their subscribers in future to avail themselves of the better facilities offered them at the Mechanics' Institute for $1 per month aul7 1m*

FROM THE MAINLAND.—The steamer Enterprise, Capt. Swanson, arrived yesterday afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock, with a few passengers, and a Cariboo mail and express, and about $20,000 in treasure. Among the passengers were, Mr. S. P. Moody and wife, Miss Moody, Mrs. Edmonds, Mrs. Clute, Miss F. Cooper, Miss Robinson, E. B. Marvin, A Peele, J. Mara, J. Johnston, Capt. Insley and E. Tie.

CATTLE SALE.—On Saturday J. P. Davies sold some fine cattle at his sales-yard, Fort street, which realized the following prices: Cows with calves, averaged $45; two year old heifers, averaged from $27 to $31; three year old heifers with calves at their feet, from $42 to 51. The sale was well attended and the prices realized were satisfactory to the owner.

BENEFIT.—To-night the Nelson Brothers have determined to give their last performance, when an exhibition superior to any that has yet been given will be presented. We hope to see a tent brim full to-night as the Nelson Brothers are a little embarrassed pecuniarily at present, and wish to raise sufficient funds to pay their way out of the Colony.

DR. SIMMS' lecture was very largely attended on Saturday night, at the Alhambra Hall, by both ladies and gentlemen. The lecture was very amusing as well as intstructive. The Doctor will lecture again to-night at 8 o'clock. Admission only 25 cents.

BIG BEND.—Mr. Mara arrived on Saturday afternoon from Big Band. He reports everything as very quiet in that locality and no later news than that which we have already received from Mr. Reede the expressman. Mr. Mara passed him at Kamloops on his way to the mines.

WHISKEY.—Several Indian canoes were met by the Musgrave Copper party, going north with plenty of whisky for sale. Many of these Indians are engaged steadily as traders between Victoria and the Fort Rupert country.

COAL OIL.—In the Wy-ah-kee-nah country, between Bella Bella and Fort Rupert, it is said there are indications of coal oil; but the Indians are so dangerous that prospectors never dare enter that country.

FARM.—The farm advertised for sale in this issue, situated on the Kokessila, in Cowichan, is well worth the attention of farmers and speculators.

DUE.—The U. S. steamer Newbern, Capt. Freeman is fully due from San Francisco today. She left on the 18th.

H. M. S. Chanticleer sailed on Saturday morning from Esquimalt at 7 o'clock for San Francisco direct.

BOARDING HOUSE, VIEW STREET ABOVE DOUGLAS.—Mrs. Hidgway informs her friend and the public, that she is now prepared to provide them with good board and lodging. The table is supplied with the very best. *

Cariboo Mining Summary.

We have the Sentinel of 13th inst., from which we extract the following:

On William creek, the Gold Hill co. are in with their tunnel 155 feet and intend to continue tunnelling until they reach the middle of the channel. The San Juan co. cleaned up 15 oz. last week from top dirt. The Downie co. cleaned up 35 oz. for the week. The Bed-Rock Flume cleaned up 100 oz., the greater portion of which was taken from the Forward ground. The Cornish co. cleaned 59 oz. for the week, and the Wilson co. 73 oz. The San Francisco co. cleaned up nearly 20 oz. from top dirt, The Foster-Campbell co. washed up 58 oz. for the week. The Cariboo co. washed up 134 oz.; the Caledonia, 22 oz.; the Forest Rose, 70 oz.; and the St. George, 40 oz., for the week.

On Walker's gulch, the Discovery co. washed up 18 oz. for the week. They have got their diggings fairly open and appear to have a good claim.

On Stout gulch, the Mucho Oro co. washed up 18 oz. for the week, and the Tarvale 57 oz. The Reid co. are prospecting. Lone Star co. are sinking a shaft. On Valley Mountain, the Valley Mountain co. on Wednesday got a prospect of $5 per day to the hand, and have commenced sluicing. The Discovery ground looks well.

On Lowhee creek, the Victoria co. washed up 19 oz., and the Brown co. 18 oz.

On Willow creek there has been a little excitement this week, in consequence of the Houghton co. having obtained a prospect, after sinking 17 feet. The channel is shallow, and the company expect to bottom at a depth of less than twenty-five feet.

On Grouse creek, the Grouse Creek co., who are opening the ground held last year by the Idaho co., have struck a prospect of 6 oz. The Caroline co. are getting fair pay.

On Begg's gulch, the Welsh co. washed up 3 oz. to the hand last week.

The men working on Red gulch are making from four to six dollars per day to the hand.

On Lightning creek, the yield of the Lightning claim for the week was less than usual, owing to the work having been impeded by boulders. The receipts, however, amounted to 160 oz., giving good dividends. Janes' claim continues paying at the rate of about 40 oz. per week for the work of three men. The Ross claim has yielded 118 oz. for the last two weeks' work. Alex. Jack & Co. struck a splendid prospect on the rock lying about 500 feet below the mouth of Eagle creek, and a great number of claims were soon after staked off. The rock pitches toward the hill, indicating the existence of a channel. Subsequent prospecting, however, has not given results proportionate to the original prospect. The Gladstone co. are down 94 feet with their shaft, and are getting on well. The Bay State co are opening ground for a tail-race. The Eleven of England co. have struck clay and have put down a temporary 12-inch pump to enable them to puddle up the shaft. The Mount Hollow co. continue prospecting and getting a little gold. The South Wales co. are progressing well with their bed-rock shaft, having got it down 68 feet. The Spruce co. will soon have their machinery, which is all completed. The Vancouver co. are getting machinery. The Vulcan co. are running a tail-race. The Murtle co. have commenced work.

On Anderson creek, the Warren claim continues paying steadily, having given the company 73 oz. for their last week's work.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY STANDARD.

SATURDAY'S DISPATCHES.

Europe.

BERLIN, Aug. 18.—The following is official: Ponta-Mousson, Wednesday evening, General Alvansloben advanced yesterday with the third corps toward the east side of Metz, on the line of the enemy's retreat towards Verdun. He encountered the enemy and severe fighting ensued with the divisions of DeCean, Froisard, Canroberts and the Imperial guard, which was sustained successfully by the tenth corps and detachments of the eighth and ninth, under Fred'k Charles. A severe combat ensued lasting 12 hours. Losses on both sides heavy. Prussian Generals Deoring and Wedet were killed, and Rousach and Grascher wounded. Notwithstanding the superiority of the French force they were driven in upon Metz.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18—The World's London special says, there are continual reports of engagements. There were a series of conflicts necessarily entailed on the two armies by reason of their vast numbers and extension of line on which they are moving. The Prussians will doubtless leave Verdun beyond them, as they have Metz, Thionville, Bitche, Strasbourg and other fortified places.

It is believed, on the best authority, that the French will concentrate at Chalons, with six hundred thousand men and one thousand guns, and that the Prussians will attack with five hundred thousand men and fourteen hundred guns.

There are rumours of agitation among the Germans of Baltic Russia, and of the mobilization of the Russian army for the Prussian frontier.

Everything now depends upon the result of Bazaine's battle, near Chalons.

PARIS, August 18—The different battles around Metz were fought by the troops of the twenty-third and fourth corps. Forty thousand French troops were engaged in them. The Prussian loss is computed at twenty thousand. The French loss was comparatively small, owing to the aid afforded by cannon and the adjoining fortress.

Official dispatches from Marshal Bazaine, just received, claim a great victory over Prince Frederick Charles and General Steinmetz, between Theoncourt and Thionville.

The Temps to-day says Emile Ollivier, ex-Prime Minister, has gone to Italy. His departure at such a moment, is severely commented on.

Information received this (Thursday) morning reports a great battle going on near Malatown, a place about one-third of the way on the road from Metz to Verdun. Large numbers are reported killed on both sides. No particulars yet received. Generals Froisard and Beautivelleare reported wounded.

Information of a reliable character has just been received, to the effect that a large body of Prussians had entered Biechy, in the Department of Moselle.

LONDON, August 18.—The Times says, the French were fighting their way, all Tuesday, to gain a position which would enable them to turn the enemy's right flank, and their progress was necessarily slow. On Tuesday night they had advanced no further than a point near Stoer, fifteen miles from Metz. These are the only facts positively known.

PARIS, August 18.—La Pays says that two days ago a French war vessel captured, in the English Channel, a British vessel laden with contraband of war, destined for the Prussians.

NEW YORK, August 18.—A private cable dispatch says, Bazaine declared that the enemy were repulsed along the whole line, while German official reports claim a victory, on the ground that the French were prevented from continuing their retreat.

PARIS, August 18.—The following is official:

Gen. Froisard is reported grievously wounded in one of the recent battles in the vicinity of Metz.

BERLIN, via LONDON, August 18.—In a naval engagement in the Baltic, yesterday, one division of the Prussian, fleet consisting of an aviso on the gunboats Drache, Blitz and Sacamada, encountered a French fleet of four armed frigates, a corvette and an aviso. The Prussians soon withdrew with loss.

The French fleet is off Doenbasch.

PARIS, August 18.—The French Government represents the previous reverses of the army as fully checked, and says that the attempt of the enemy to interfere with the concentration of troops at Chalons has been completely frustrated.

The Patrie's account of the battle at Metz, on Monday, says Bazaine was not surprised, and succeeded, in effecting a junction with McMahon and Trochu.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Europe

PARIS, August 18.—The following additional details of Tuesday's battle, are obtained from official sources:

Prince Fredrick Charless attacked our right, and was forcibly met by the corps of Gen. Argard, at Theon, which hastened into action, and ceased only with night. The Prussians attacked repeatedly, and were as often repulsed. Friday night the French corps sought to turn position, but was beaten off. Our losses are serious. General Teaulvelle is wounded. By eight in the evening the enemy was repulsed along the entire line. They had 12,000 men engaged.

BERLIN, August 18.—Dispatches from King William, dated Ponta Mousson, August 17th, says:

In a fight, yesterday, we took two thousand prisoners, and guns, and two eagles.

LONDON, August 18.—Coincidence in the time of the recent revolutionary outbreaks, in Paris and the south of France, suggests to the police evidence of a combined attempt to declare a Republic.

In a serious engagement which occurred on Tuesday, near Gravelotte, the French held their position, but suffered a heavy loss.

Telegrams from Bricy says, an obstinate struggle occurred near Mars-la-tour, yesterday. It is believed the engagement was general. Large numbers of wounded, from both armies, are arriving at Bircy.

Travelers report vast bodies of Prussians were thrown back on the Mosselle by the Imperial Guard.

The Prussian artillery is entrenched between Bricy and Metz.

A special correspondent writes from Chalons, under date of Monday: An alarm was sounded at ten o'clock this evening, and the artillery was immediately put in motion, and went forward to Beisemer, but found the railroad cut, and fell back. No communication now exists between Chalons, Metz or Verdun. We do do not know where the main body of the French army is. The Prussian Guard is nearer Chalons than Bazaine is. There is no force there capable of resisting an attack. Thus far nothing but cavalry is heard of, and that was yesterday, within 20 miles of Chalons.

The Tribune's cable special correspondent writes from the headquarters of the second Prussian army corps, under date of August 12th:

The Prussians have at least six hundred thousand men advancing on French soil, and as many more in reserve. In Germany, all talk of peace before the occupancy of Paris, is laughed at.

LONDON, August 18.—An official dispatch from Marshall Bazaine, dated 4 p. m., Wednesday, says:

Yesterday afternoon we gave battle between Theoncourt and Theonville. The enemy were driven back. We bivouacked on a poisition we had taken. We had before us Fredrick Charles and Gen. Stenmitz.

The following is not official, but was given the public by the French Ministry.

VERDUN, Wednesday.—The battle still continues on the other side of Mars-la-Tour and seems to be going in our favor. A number of Prussian soldiers have been brought into Bricey. Twelve hundred Prussians are encamped on the plateau between Bricy and St. Jean.

Trustworthy parties who have arrived here from Mars-la-Tour, speak of heavy engagement there yesterday, with a large portion of the Prussian army, in which they were charged with great vigor by our cavalry and Imperial Guard, and were thrown back on Moselle. Theonville still remains in our possession.

LONDON, August 18.—The Tribune's cable special says, Tuesday's battle is the crowning proof of the French falsehood and concealment in the recent telegrams. Palikao declared in the Corps Legislatif that the Prussians had been forced to abandon their attempt to interrupt the French retreat; that Bazaine was pursuing his route to Verdun unmolested; and while he was speaking the Prussians were attacking the French flank, and at night-fall one portion west of Bazaine's army had been forced to abandon the road to Verdun and were again in Metz. No considerable part of the French army has ever succeeded in getting far on the road from Metz to Verdun. The delay, from whatever cause, gave the Prussians time to come up, and they were able on Tuesday to come up strong enough to force the French to retreat and bring the 4th and 7th Corps into action. A junction of the armies of Bazaine and McMahon is expected at Vitrey la Francois, near Chalons, where the French expect to make a stand.

A well informed dispatch says the Prussians will exact no surrender of French soil, but will insist on the exclusion of the Bonaparte family from thereon. The political restoration of the House of Orleans is currently discussed as practicable.

Midnight.—We have it on high authority from Paris that it is the universal conviction that Napoleon's dynasty is ended, the Empress having packed up and dispatched all her valuables and left for England, via Belgium. It is also believed the Emperor is on his way to this country by the same track; he does not dare to return to Paris. Prince Napoleon has fled to Italy with his family.

NEW YORK, August 19.—The World's special correspondent telegraphs from Russia that the news is almost menacing. There was a demonstration yesterday of students at Losito against Prussia. The Russian authorities are enforcing oppressive measures against the German inhabitants.

The Prince and Princess of Wales are unusually warm in their almost open sympathy with the French. The Prince's feelings are supposed to rest on his great dislike of his brother-in-law, the Crown Prince of Prussia.

A dispatch dated London, August 19—11:30, p. m.—says the Daily News of this date contains a dispatch from Brussels, which says Napoleon is suffering from febrile monomania.

LONDON, August 19.—Dispatches from Berlin state that the French armies separated at Mars-la-Tours, and the main army at Metz were checked by the 1st and 2d Corps of the Prussian army. The Crown Prince, with the 2nd Corps, was marching to attack Freshard at Chalons. The dispatch adds that Bazaine must cut his way through the Prussian army or be forced to capitulate.

LONDON, August 19.—A part of the French army has been forced back to Metz. Its position there is regarded as very critical.

It is believed that preliminary negotiations for peace are under discussion here.

The London Times, in an article on the situation, says the road to Paris is open to the Crown Prince, who may leave Charles Frederick to watch Marshal Bazaine.

The Morning Post says, semi-officially, that no peace negotiations are afloat; Government is satisfied that France will not treat until she has done reacting all turns on the capture of Paris. The Post also denies the stories recently published of Prince Murat in England.

The Times' special telegram from Berlin, this morning, contains the following: The French army has been separated by the victory of the Prussians at Mars LaTour. The main body has been forced back on Metz and brought to a stand by the 1st and 2nd German armies under Prince Frederick Charles and General Steinmetz. The road is now open to Chalons for the Crown Prince who has only General Troychu and some fragments of McMahon's corps to encounter on the way to Paris.

PARIS, August 19—The Paris journals this morning say that 19 Prussian spies were arrested and, after trial and condemnation by court, were shot at Fort de Malstromgar. Among the executed were five officers of the enemy.

The following has just been made public: General Headquarters, 1:35 p. m.—On the march the corps of General Ladmirault formed on the extreme right of the army division of the 73rd regiment, destroyed the Prussian regiment of lancers and took its colors.

There has been many brilliant charges, in one of which General Legrand was killed at the head of his division. General Montague is missing. Prussian Generals Keering and Wekel were killed and Generals Troantos and Von Ramek were wounded. Prince Albert, of the Prussians, commanding the cavalry, was killed the following morning. We were masters of the position previously held by the enemy. On the morning of the 17th several combats with the rear guard took place near Travellotte. The force of the enemy in the battle of the 16th is estimated at 150,000. We have not yet received exact figures of our losses.

PARIS, August 19.—The authorities continue to arrest suspicious parties. Many discoveries have been made of arms and paper demonstrating widely the extended system of Prussian spying throughout France.

LONDON, August 19.—There was fighting all day Thursday near Mars LaTour.

LONDON, August 19.—A special from Carlsruhe says the demands of the King of Prussia are stated to be: First, That he be declared Emperor of Germany. Second, The Province of Alsace with the city of Strasburg be given to the Grand Duchy of Baden. Third, Bavaria to receive full money compensation in consideration of her services and expenses. Fourth That Napoleon III be deposed and that an Orleans Prince be placed upon the Throne. The feeling in Germany is unanimously in favor of these conditions.

A dispatch from Copenhagen, this morning, informs us that the French blockade of the Baltic ports has been declared effective, and ten days are allowed all vessels running out.

PARIS, August 19.—The Prussians sent a flag of truce, demanding an armistic for purpose of burying their dead. They admitted the loss of 8,000 killed. The armistice was refused. In this battle the first corps of Prussia was commanded by Gen. Mauteugel, and the seveuth corps by Count Zastrowhad, which comprises 500,000 infantry, 33,000 cavalry, and 96 guns. It is said the French troops numbered 150,000.

The Emperor is still at Rheims.

The ground between Metz and Verdun has been a scene of constant carnage since last Sunday.

PARIS, August 19.—The Department assert that the seige of Strasbourg is abandoned, the statment is not confirmed.

Letters from Rome report that Gen. Character, the commander of the Papal forces, is at Vertebi, and that the Italian army would attack him. He has demanded that the passages of the Tiber be immediately fortified, especially at or near to a point where the railroad from Florence enters Papal territory.

The police authorities at Rome announce that all strangers living in the city, and within four miles, must obtain permission of residence, and, without such papers they are liable to expulsion.

LONDON, August 16.—Telegrams from Brussels report the Emperor quite ill, with symptons of intense cerebril excitement. He is said to charge his mis-adventures to treason. The report is generally discredited.

There was fighting all day Thursday near Mars-la-tour. Last French dispatches express confidence of victory.

The united request of Austria and England disuading France from expelling German residents, has been effective.

NEW YORK, August 19.—The World's London special says, the losses on both sides in the battle of Tuesday and Wednesday were 50.000 in killed and wounded. The Prussians are estimated to have lost 100,000 men since the army entered France.

Bazaine and McMahon's forces are stated to be about 400,000, people regard Trochu as the actual dictator. He is talked of as Consul of the Republic.

The Crown Prince's army is said to be moving towards Beyhe to support Stenmitz and Fredrick Charles.

LONDON, August 19.—M. Gaillardet telegraphs from Paris to the Courier des etats Unis as follows: In an interview with Cheverend, Minister of the Interior, he complained that dispatches which, by special favor, have been permitted to send to New York, have been transmitted back to Prussia, to the detriment of our operations. These dispatches have made the enemy acquainted with projected movements on our part, and the strength of our forces at certain points, consequently Bazaine has been compelled to interdict the publication of all army news, except that from his headquarters. So the Minister of the Interior will furnish such dispatches as he finds suitable.

News of the complete route of the French army under Bazamine and the retreat of McMahon on Paris received early this morning by associated press set the town wild with excitement. There is little doing on the street but discussing the situation of the French who have held out full hopes until now, they appear completely discouraged. The Germans, though exultated show no disposition to insult their opponents in the hour of their triumph. The defeat of Thursday is conceeded all hands to have been decisive. Private dispatches from Paris says the cause of France is lost.

LONDON, August 20.—11 A. M.—Great Prussian Victory is announced, particulars will be forwarded soon.

LONDON, August 20.—The following is an official dispatch from King William dated Thursday evening: We have driven the French under Bazaien, after a battle lasting 10 hours; there were 40,000 killed and wounded, the French garrison were taken prisoners. I commanded. The defeat of the French is complete

Signed WILLIAM.

LONDON, August 20.—All private dispatches to bankers agree presisely on the same terms regarding the victory of the Prussians. Dispatches from King William say the French army is west of Metz there position is very strong; my command after a combat of 9 hours totally defeated the French army and interrupted their communications with Paris and forces at Metz.

LONDON, August 20.—A bombardment of Strasburge from a point near Kehl began on Friday morning and continued till noon when it was suspended for two hours; the return of the garrison was almost harmless.

MUNICH, August 20.—8 p. m.—A bloody battle occurred to day between Gavellotte and Rosunville; the French was repulsed and driven back to Metz. All communications betweene Metz and Paris has been destroyed.

NEW YORK, August 20.—The following has just been received:

BERLIN, August 20.—The Queen has received the following dispatch from King William, dated near Rosunville, near Metz, August 20th: The French army was attacked to-day west of Metz, its position was a very strong one. After a combat of 9 hours' durance the enemy was totally routed. The French forces have had their communication with Paris interrupted and are thrown back on Metz.

LONDON, August 20.—There is a rumor current here of the sudden death of Emperor Napoleon. It is asserted confidently by some, but accepted with distrust. Appoplexy is named as the cause of his death.

BRUSSELS, August 20.—A Paris letter to the Independent Belge says McMahon is retreating on Paris and will evade an engagement unless he can form a junction with Bazaine.

The Council of war at Paris, as a defensive measure, have ordered the partial destruction of Bois de Bolougne.

LONDON, August 20—12 p. m.—There is great joy at Hamburg, Berlin and Frankfort over the recent Prussian victory. Illuminations and processions are the order of the occasion.

The French war office forbids the publication of war dispatches unless signed by Bazaine.

A Paris correspondent writes that silence has settled on the name of Napoleon; he is dead socially and Imperially. For a fortnight his name has been unpronounced in the Chambers and he is as much disregarded as the paper.

It is said that there are now more than 400,000 Germans between the Rhine and Paris.

PARIS, August 20—Noon.—There are rumors of engagements between Canroberts and Prince Frederick Charles; also that the Prince Royal has penetrated France as far as Vitrey la Francois, 19 miles southeast of Chalons, and had an engagement with the forces under McMahon.

The inhabitants of Chalons have received orders to get their grain away within 24 hours.

Part of the Prussian army have re-entered Nancy and named a Mayor of the city.

A Prussian invasion of Luxemburg is considered imminent, from orders lately given for their subsistence.

The Presse says trustworthy advices state the Prussian loss has not been less than 90,000 in the battles of the last two or three days.

CARLSRUHE, August 19.—The following dispatch is official: The Baden division has occupied the French town of Schultzhun, one mile north of Strassburg-Hanshreffen On the northeast, the 7th division continue to harass the retreating French.

NEW YORK, August 20.—A special to the Telegraph says, telegrams this morning say Paris is terribly excited over news received from the army. The flight of Ollivier is now fully confirmed.

KULBURG, Prussia, August 20.—Three French frigates are off this port now.
